

SPECIAL EDUCATION WORKSHOP: DEVELOPING TEAMS TO SUPPORT ENGLISH LANGUAGE LEARNERS	March 11, 2010 8:30 AM to 3 PM
	Where: Capital Region BOCES 900 Watervliet-Shaker Road Albany, NY 12205
English Language Learners (ELLs) with disabilities are doubly challenged because they must learn English while overcoming language and/or learning disabilities. Our schools have different kinds of teams to support learning, provide instructional interventions and, when ELLs have disabilities, make recommendations for instruction from Special Education (IEP/CSE). Through discussion and activities the presenter will guide participants in exploring the following questions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How can teams (Child Study, Instructional Support, etc.) design successful interventions for ELLs?</li> <li>• What can team members (reading specialist, classroom teacher, ESL teacher) bring to the table?</li> <li>• How can intervention and problem-solving teams examine student work to guide interventions?</li> <li>• What do teams need to know/learn about ELLs in order to make effective recommendations?</li> </ul>
Who Should Attend? CSE/CPSE Chairs, School Psychologists, Speech &amp; Language Personnel, Teachers, Social Workers, Parents &amp; other School Personnel	Presenter: Ellen Chernoff, Bilingual Specialist RSE-TASC North Country/Capital Region Co-Sponsored by Questar III BETAC and RSE-TASC North Country/Capital Region
