

Co-sponsored by the: Diversity Consortium -
Questar III BETAC, RSE -TASC, and the Greater Capital Region Teacher Center

Hispanic Students in Context Professional Development Series: The Mexican Student

Dates: March 9, and 16, 2009 / 4:00 PM – 6:30 PM

Location: Ichabod Crane MS Library, Ichabod Crane CSD

The experience and perspective of Mexican students including a description of the education system in Mexico.

- Mexico's culture and its people's motivation for moving their families to New York State.
- Discussion of the factors that shape the academic experience of Mexican students.
- Instructional strategies and ideas for ways to connect with the Mexican student in the classroom.
- Ideas for incorporating the rich resources students bring to the classroom: their language, culture, and experiences.
- Resources for reference and instruction.

For more information please contact the BETAC, 518-477-8771 or Greater Capital Region Teacher Center at 518-525-2678 or go to: <http://www.teachercenter.org/programs/diversity>

All interested personnel are welcome!
There is no fee for this program.
ONLINE Registration is REQUIRED.

Presented by:
Dr. Susan Gauss, Assistant Professor,
Department of Latin American and Caribbean Studies;
Department of History, The University at Albany;
BETAC, and RSE –TASC Staff.

This event is funded through a contract with the New York State Department of Education.

Register Online – Course Code WS 3340
<http://www.teachercenter.org/programs/diversity>
Contact the GCRTC Registrar with questions at: 518-525-2657